Greetings Tom,

Please find attached the following items as requested by your letter dated October 6th:

Annual Information returns from 2014, 2015, & 2016 - Please see attached our taxes from those three years requested. Additional, this information is available online at the IRS Government Website and on our own website under "donate."

Notice of Status under the IRS Code Section 527 (i) – To check on our exempt status, you can visit the IRS website at https://www.irs.gov/charities-non-profits/exempt-organizations-select-check. As you can see from utilizing their search tool, we are in good standing with the IRS.

Any 990, 990EZ, 990T form 2014, 2015, & 2016 - Please see attached our taxes from those three years requested. Additional, this information is available online at the IRS Government Website and on our own website under "donate."

The Cherry Fund did not include its profit/loss statements due to those statements contain proprietary contractual information that is not public to protect our payment rates to hotels, DJs, performers, photographers, videographers, and any and all business dealings with The Cherry Funds. The organization are in binding agreements to not publically disclose those amounts; however, the IRS may access them at any time if requested.

The remaining information you requested is not public, and we are not in a position to provide it to third parties.

In the future, please address any communications you may have to me, at this email address cherryfundwdc@gmail.com and/or certified mail.

Sincerely,

Allen Sexton, Board Chairman

Dear Taxpayer:

This is in response to your request dated Oct. 26, 2017, regarding your tax-exempt status.

We issued you a determination letter in March 1999, recognizing you as tax-exempt under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3).

Our records also indicate you're not a private foundation as defined under IRC Section 509(a) because you're described in IRC Sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi).

Donors can deduct contributions they make to you as provided in IRC Section 170. You're also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts under IRC Sections 2055, 2106, and 2522.

In the heading of this letter, we indicated whether you must file an annual information return. If a return is required, you must file Form 990, 990-EZ, 990-N, or 990-PF by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. IRC Section 6033(j) provides that, if you don't file a required annual information return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked on the filing due date of the third required return or notice.

For tax forms, instructions, and publications, visit www.irs.gov or call 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you have questions, call 1-877-829-5500 between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., local time, Monday through Friday (Alaska and Hawaii follow Pacific Time).
